About the Position

The Police Officer is a safety position reporting and operating under the Police Chief. The successful candidate will patrol an assigned beat in the prevention of crime and the enforcement of law and order; and will carry out special assignments in the protection of life and property; and do related work as required.

The Department is a full service community police force separated into two divisions: the Field Services Division and the Support-Administrative Services Division. The Field Services Division is responsible for all patrol functions in addition to traffic, investigative services, narcotics enforcement, a canine unit, bicycle patrol, and training.

The relatively small size of the city allows our staff to get to know our citizens and provide the personalized service that may not be available in larger cities. Our officers respond to all kinds of calls, with no issue too small or too large for them to resolve. We provide our officers with excellent, modern equipment, and empower them to handle all types of cases regardless of complexity.

The Police Officer will be part of a small energetic team who work together to serve Anderson's citizens and community.

The ideal candidate will have a combination of training and experience that provides the required knowledge, skills and abilities as follows:

- The ability to learn, understand, and interpret laws, ordinances, departmental policies and regulations, and police literature
- An aptitude for law enforcement work
- The ability to analyze situations and adopt quick, effective, and reasonable courses of action
- The ability to write clear and accurate reports
- The ability to remember names, faces, and details of incidents
- The ability to meet established age, height, and weight standards
- Physical endurance and agility
- The ability to establish and maintain effective relations with others
- Minimum requirements: Graduation from a POST certified academy by date of appointment; and possession of a valid California driver's license
- * An Associate degree from an accredited college or university and one year previous experience preferred

- Must be of good moral character and emotional maturity. Background free of any felony convictions or misdemeanors involving moral turpitude, and absent an excessive number of driving convictions. Polygraph, Medical, and Psychological Screening will be required for successful candidates.
- Be able to meet standards of optimum physical competency, endurance and agility; demonstrate proficiency in the use and care of firearms; and establish and maintain effective relationships with others.
- Be able, as required, to use police car, police radio, radar gun, handgun and other weapons as required, baton, handcuffs, Intoxilyzer, pager, first aid equipment, cellular telephone, and personal computer including word processing software.

Physical Requirements:

- Weight: In proportion to height and build
- Vision: Acceptably corrected to 20/30 in both eyes with normal color perception
- Auditory: Normal perception
